Chevelle Show Classes

Original Unrestored	Original Restored
Includes years 1964-1972. Entries should exhibit NO signs of restoration. Maintenance item replacement OK (i.e. Tires, Belts, Water Pump, etc...), not just for looks.	Includes years 1964-'65, 1966-'67, 1968-'69, 1970, 1971-'72. Entries have been restored to factory-new appearance. Any color change/options must have been available for that year.
Mild Modified	Modified
Includes years 1964-'65, 1966-'67, 1968-'69, 1970-'72. Entries conform to Original Restored criteria but have at least 3 modifications, but no more than 7.	Includes years 1964-'67, 1968-'72. Entries are highly modified for racing or appearance and may feature tubs, exotic paint, blower, etc. No limit on number of modifications.
Daily Driver	El Camino
Includes years 1964-'72. Entries are used for DAILY transportation. Signs of use should be very obvious. Entries not meeting the criteria will be moved to another class.	Includes years 1964-1972. A special class for a special truck! GMC Sprints are also welcome. Participant can enter either this or any other appropriate class.
Later Model Chevelles & El Caminos	Specialty Awards
Includes years 1973-1987. Entries may include any and all criteria listed in the other classes and can be stock or modified.	President's Choice, Director's Choice, Dealer's Choice, MCC Ladies Choice, Participant's Choice, Crystal, Attention to Detail, Margelos Memorial, Best Engine, Interior, and Best of Show.

Visit our website (www.mdchevelleclub.com) for a detailed description of each class

Please select the class that best describes your entry. Need help? An MCC Show Staffer will be happy to help you. Some variations in class divisions may occur due to the number of entries at show time. Awards ceremony will start approximately 3:30 PM on Saturday.
