Chevelle Show Classes

Original Unrestored

Includes years 1964-1972. Entries should exhibit NO signs of restoration. Maintenance item replacement OK (i.e. Tires, Belts, Water Pump, etc...), not just for looks.

Mild Modified

Includes years 1964-'65, 1966-'67, 1968-'69, 1970, 1971-'72. Entries conform to Original Restored criteria but have at least 3 modifications, but no more than 7.

Daily Driver

Includes years 1964-'72. Entries are used for DAILY transportation. Signs of use should be very obvious. Entries not meeting the criteria will be moved to another class.

Later Model Chevelles & El Caminos

Includes years 1973-1987. Entries may include any and all criteria listed in the other classes and can be stock or modified.

Original Restored

Includes years 1964-'65, 1966-'67, 1968-'69, 1970, 1971-'72. Entries have been restored to factory-new appearance. Any color change/options must have been available for that year.

Modified

Includes years 1964-'67, 1968-'72. Entries are highly modified for racing or appearance and may feature tubs, exotic paint, blower, etc. No limit on number of modifications.

El Camino

Includes years 1964-1972. A special class for a special truck! GMC Sprints are also welcome. Participant can enter either this or any other appropriate class.

Specialty Awards

Visit our website (www.mdchevelleclub.com) for a detailed description of each class

Please select the class that best describes your entry. Need help? An MCC Show Staffer will be happy to help you. Some variations in class divisions may occur due to the number of entries at show time. Awards ceremony will start approximately 2:00 PM on Sunday. NOTE: Entries arriving on Sunday may register/show, but WILL NOT be judged. You will be eligible for door prizes and special awards.
